

ARINC

has been a corporate supporter of the Annapolis community for decades and has done so both financially and with our employees devoting their time. We have provided support to a wide variety of causes including the Anne Arundel Medical Center, Historic Annapolis Foundation, Habitat for Humanity as well as the back to school backpack program, Toys for Tots and holiday sharing through Social Services, just to name a few. The employees in our Technical Excellence Society also volunteer their time to foster an interest in technical careers and each year award scholarships to deserving students. Because we are a major employer in the greater Annapolis area, in addition to our contribution as a company, the volunteering that many of our employees do on a personal basis has a significant positive impact and we are proud of their dedication to worthy causes.
